MONDAY NIGHT AT THE MOVIES | SEARCHING FOR SUGAR MAN

Monday, Feb. 18 at 1pm & 7pm | Woman's Library Club

Occasionally, truth is stranger and more satisfying than fiction. Such a true story is told in Searching for Sugar Man. A little-known Detroit singer-songwriter named Rodriguez made two albums in the early 1970s and then disappeared into obscurity. Unknown in America, Rodriguez's music was discovered by South Africans, where it eventually rivaled the likes of the Beatles in popularity. When some of Rodriguez's most avid fans set out to determine how and where he died, they're in for the surprise of their lives. Searching for Sugar Man is "an electrifying illustration of music's power to inspire and change lives on both sides of the footlights." — Colin Covert, Minneapolis Star Tribune. 85 minutes. Rated PG-13

THE LETTERS

Through March 17 | Writers' Theatre

When Anna is called in for a meeting with her superior, everything seems to be going well. But nothing is quite as it seems in this thriller of politics and disinformation set in 1930s Russia. An informal interview quickly turns into a game of cat and mouse in which the roles of hunter and hunted shift without warning, and being the last to flinch may mean the difference between life and death. Who will claim the upper hand: those who suppress the truth, or those who will risk everything to liberate it?

SWEET CHARITY

Through March 31 | Writers' Theatre

How many times can a girl make the same mistakes? Charity Valentine's problems aren't unique—a dead end job, a string of dates with identically flawed men and a knack for making the wrong choices. Of course, in her case the job is as a dance hall "hostess" and her dates all seem to end with her being pushed into the lake— but that won't shake her belief that great things lie just ahead. And perhaps they do...
