WATER PLANT SUPERINTENDENT TOM WEATHERS RETIRES AFTER 26 YEARS OF SERVICE

Following a career in Glencoe that has spanned over 26 years, Water Plant Superintendent Tom Weathers retired on Friday. Tom has been an invaluable part of the Public Works and Glencoe team since joining the Village staff in 1988, and his guidance at the Water Plant has allowed the Village to achieve award-winning water quality standards. His talent and knowledge of water processing was second to none in the field and he will be missed. We wish him well!

Tom will be present at the December 18, 2014 Village Board of Trustees meeting to be recognized for his years of service.

WRITERS THEATRE UPDATE

Writers Theatre construction has remained on schedule and is progressing to the next phase. Beginning December 22, installation of precast concrete wall panels will begin, followed by work on structural steel. This phase will take an estimated 4 to 5 weeks to complete, which may be impacted by weather. During this phase, it is expected that there will be an increase in construction traffic due to the number of trucks needed to deliver the large precast panels. Village staff is planning to work very closely with Writers Theatre's construction team to minimize impacts on the community during this time. For more information, please visit
