ACTIVE INVESTIGATION UNDERWAY OF ACCIDENT NEAR INTERSECTION OF SHERIDAN AND LAKE COOK ROAD

(Glencoe, Illinois)— The Village of Glencoe Public Safety Department is investigating an accident that occurred early this morning near the intersection of Sheridan and Lake Cook Roads.

Public Safety asks that those travelling near the area this morning seek an alternative route. Those attending Rosh Hashanah services this morning at North Shore Congregation Israel who are approaching from the north are advised to travel by way of Green Bay Road to Maple Hill or Park Avenue, to Sheridan Road. Those approaching from the south will be unaffected. View a detour map here: <http://ow.ly/9r5130fk9ru>

The Major Case Assistance Team (MCAT) will assist the Public Safety Department in their investigation of the accident. More information will be shared with the media as soon as it becomes available.

The media may contact Deputy Chief Richard Weiner at rweiner@villageofglencoe.org / (847) 461-1127 for more information.
