

VILLAGE OF GLENCOE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY

“My favorite part of serving with the department is that every day is different, which allows me to put my diverse skill set to good use as my team and I help keep Glencoe residents as safe and as healthy as possible.”

Meet Deputy Chief Rich Weiner.

A 30-year veteran of the Glencoe Department of Public Safety, Deputy Chief Weiner is a prime example of what a successful career in law enforcement, fire and EMS might look like.

Not only has he embraced these three roles, but he's taken advantage of opportunities to serve in different capacities with regional task forces, has continually challenged himself through higher education endeavors and has passionately pursued leadership advancement within the department – all getting him to where he is today.
